EXPERIENCE

High Lady | The Night Court, Prythian*Present*

Velaris, Night Court

- Co-rule the Night Court as an equal partner — the first High Lady in Prythian's history — sharing full authority over governance, defense, and diplomacy.
- Serve as emissary to allied and rival courts, representing the Night Court in negotiations across Prythian.
- Lead recovery and rebuilding efforts for Velaris and its people in the aftermath of war.

Undercover Operative & Emissary | Spring Court (embedded)Wartime

High-risk infiltration assignment

- Embedded inside a rival court under the guise of a returning member to gather intelligence and quietly weaken its position ahead of conflict.
- Managed a convincing cover under constant scrutiny while feeding critical information back to allied command.

Trials Competitor | Under the Mountain*Wartime*

Life-or-death competition

- Completed a series of deadly trials and solved a concealed riddle to break a curse holding all seven courts, succeeding where others had failed for decades.

Provider & Huntress | Archeron Household*Early years*

Sole family provider

- Hunted and bartered to feed and support a struggling family through years of poverty, self-taught with a bow in unforgiving conditions.
- Managed scarce resources and made hard decisions as the household's primary provider from a young age.

NOTABLE INITIATIVES

Rebuilding Velaris — Helped lead relief and reconstruction for the City of Starlight and its residents after the war against Hybern.

Original Artwork — Accomplished painter; created commissioned and personal works, including murals and decorative commissions across the Night Court.
